

A little prom never killed nobody

Inside scoop on DHS's favorite 2014 prom memories

Hannah Frazier & Robyn Young up close & pulse

Whether it was on a party bus or at the dance, the upper classmen of Dow High enjoyed prom very much. The dance was Great Gatsby themed this year, so a lot of the girls went for a more glitzy look. Many students chose to go with a date, while others who didn't have a date still had a great time going with a group of friends. Students share their favorite 2014 prom memories and what their favorite Great Gatsby experience was like.

“Guys don't have to do as much to prepare for prom as girls. Literally all I did was take a shower and put on my tux.” Seth Carlson, Junior”

“I loved being at dinner with all my friends and taking pictures with them.” Kaleb Gandy, Senior”

“The dance was super fun. I helped set up so seeing how it turned out was really cool.” Audrey Moolenar, Junior”

“Going to prom with one of my best friends was a great end to senior year.” Josh Tomsich, Senior”

“Going with a group of friends was fun because I didn't have to worry about buying flowers or any of the drama that comes with a date.” Hope Harnois, Junior”

“The dance was really hot and sweaty with some okay music.” Cole Lacey, Senior”

photo courtesy Kelly Finn

1-2-3 STRIKE A POSE: Maritza Garcia, Sully McMahon, Andrew Morley, Kelly Finn, Max Muessig, and Marni Lornez line up to take a simple, organized group picture before heading to dinner! These couples went all out for the Great Gatsby theme, especially the girls, who wore bright, glamorous dresses. “Our group for prom was super fun because I went with my beautiful date, as well as my close friends,” junior Muessig said.

photo courtesy Emily Peterson

G-L-A-M-O-U-R-U-S, YEAH! Junior Emily Peterson pins the matching boutonniere on her lovely date, junior Josh Pasek. Even though the two went to prom as friends, they matched Peterson's dress to Pasek's tux. They also brought in similar gold hues to their flowers. “I loved going with Josh because he's so energetic, he made the whole night fun!” Peterson said.

photo courtesy Julia Ahrens

RAINY DAYS: Junior Julia Ahrens and senior Nick Olen are on their way to take pictures at Dow Gardens for prom 2014, despite the gloomy weather. Dow Gardens is the normal picture perfect scenery for prom, but this year it was a muddy mess. “As soon as we got to Dow Gardens it began to pour. We took a few pictures there, but the majority were taken at the Country Club when the rain gave up,” Ahrens said. Rain or shine, this couple managed to take adorable prom pictures together.